

MARK ANNIVERSARY . . . The Orchid Lady Beauty Salon currently is celebrating its third anniversary in Torrance. Located at 17421 Prairie Ave., the salon employs eight operators and specializes in bleached and tinted hair, according to owner Ella Ochwat (fourth from right). A special feature of the anniversary celebration is a one-price permanent for bleached or tinted hair.

Bell Asks For Views Of Voters

Six questions on issues of general public interest have been included in the current edition of Congressman Alphonzo Bell's (R-28th District) monthly newsletter from Washington.

- Questions include:
- Do you believe the United States should have insisted on payment of delinquent U. N. dues?
 - Do you endorse the increased military commitment of the United States in Viet Nam?
 - Do you approve of the United States role in the revolution in the Dominican Republic?
 - Do you support spending federal funds to help solve the water shortage in the East?
 - Do you believe there should be more stringent federal restrictions on outdoor advertising?
 - Do you support repeal of the right-to-work section of the Taft-Hartley Act?

Congressman Bell said residents who did not receive a copy of the newsletter may submit their views in writing to his Washington office. The opinion poll is conducted monthly in his district.

Constitution Week Marked In Torrance

Mayor Albert Isen, noting that Friday marks the 178th anniversary of the signing of the United States Constitution, last night proclaimed this week as "Constitution Week" in Torrance.

Isen urged residents to participate in the Constitution Week observance by visiting local supermarkets and signing the large copies of the Constitution at booths manned by Boy Scouts.

Calling the Constitution "one of the most important documents in the history of free men," Isen said the week will give all citizens "an opportunity to reaffirm our faith in our Constitution and our nation."

Retired General Takes Post at Garrett Corp.

New staff member of the Garrett Corp. is General Mark E. Bradley Jr., USAF, Ret., according to Harry Wetzel, president. Bradley will serve as assistant to Wetzel.

Upon retiring July 31, the general had served for three years as Commander, Air Force Logistics Command, Wright-Patterson Field.

His military career began in 1930 when he graduated from the U. S. Military Academy. He completed flying training a year later and was assigned as a fighter pilot with the First Group at Selfridge Field, Mich.

He was graduated from the Engineering School at Wright Field in 1938 and assigned to the Flight Test Section as a test pilot. He was the P-47 project officer throughout early production phases. In 1943 he became chief of the Fighter Branch, and a year later chief of the Flight Test Section.

He was appointed assistant deputy chief of staff for materiel at Air Force Headquarters in 1956.

On July 1, 1962, General Bradley became commander of Air Force Logistics Command. On the same day his appointment as a four-star general became effective. Among his decorations are the Distinguished Service Medal, the Legion of Merit, the Bronze Star Medal with one oak leaf cluster, the Air Medal, and the French Croix de Guerre.

Armed Forces

Aviation Electronics Technician Airman Roger W. Rainy, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Rainy of 1139 E. Joel St., graduated as Honorary Aug. 13, from the Aviation Electronics Technician course in Radar at the Naval Air Technical Training Center, Memphis, Tenn.

He was first in a class of 16 with an average of 90.9.

During the 12-week course Rainy was introduced to a pulsed radar system, electronics countermeasures and types of radar and navigational aids. The curriculum included operational theory, troubleshooting procedures and utilization of associated radar test equipment.

A graduate of Carson High School, Rainy entered the Navy in September, 1964.
